PHIL ROSENTHAL

Live Folk, Bluegrass and Country Music for All Ages

With firm roots in folk, bluegrass and country, Phil Rosenthal's music is a delight for all ages. His rich baritone voice, lively instrumental work and relaxed stage presence have charmed audiences throughout the U.S., Europe and Japan, including appearances at the White House and the Grand Ole Opry.

A former member of the legendary band the Seldom Scene, he was appointed Connecticut State Troubadour in 1994. His original compositions have been recorded by Johnny Cash and Bill Monroe. A pioneer in bringing traditional musical styles to children, his recordings have received over 20 awards from the Parents' Choice Foundation, the National Parenting Publications Association and the American Library Association.

Whether playing for adults or children, Phil's mixture of memorable original songs and classic favorites, expert picking on banjo, guitar and mandolin and warm stage presence have won him new fans everywhere he's travelled.
